

MISSION

The Humanities Research Institute has as its mission to do research, to spread the culture and student guidance with excellence.

This institute is part of a public institution; which has the duty of forming social-scientific academic humanists under a model of responsibility with an informed and global vision of the world, ethical and competent entrepreneurs in the knowledge society. In this regard to applying, producing, promoting and spreading the knowledge and culture to support a solid advanced of sciences, arts, humanities, and technologies. Contribute to an ethical sense based on the unit, democratic, multicultural based on the knowledge; as well as developing solutions to social problems in the country and the world but in particular the state of San Luis Potosí, in local, national and international areas.